MED "GO-TO" & "KEEP-ON MARKET" PROCESS WITH DBI CERTIFICATION A/S

This process is a guideline and does not explain the individual procedures in detail.

"Onboarding" process:

You want a product to be placed on the market

Reach out to
DBI Certification A/S

Based on your requests for the product, scope of Certification project is determined by your Application and documentation

Quotation, Certification agreement etc. signed to start the Certification Project Preparation of the EC Type Examination Certification project

"Type Examination" process:

Test(s), Classification

Examination of the technical design and verification that the marine equipment meets the relevant requirements

Issue EC Type Examination Certificate for you to place the product on the market with a Wheel mark

"Keep the Product Certificate" process (if issued by DBI Certification A/S):

Within your Certification Agreement,
DBI Certification A/S proactively will follow up and reach out to you for renewal of the "Product Certificate"

Your request of renewal by application and documentation Any change or modification of the product that affect the declared performance of the product need to be updated before it is implemented Examination of the technical design and verification that the marine equipment meets the relevant requirements

Issue a renewed EC Type Examination Certificate for you to keep the product placed on the market with a Wheel mark

"Conformity to type" process:

Conformity assessment audit on site

Issue Production site(s) Certificate

"Keep the Production Site(s) Certificate" process (if issued by DBI Certification A/S:

Within your Certification Agreement,

DBI Certification A/S proactively will plan for annual conformity assessment audits of the production site(s)

Multiple certified products within same serie of standard manufactured at the same production site can be included

Any change or modification of the product that affect the declared performance of the product need to be updated before it is implemented

Conformity assessment audit on site

Issue Renewed production site(s) Certificate

Manufacturer & DBI Certification

Manufacturer

DBI Certification

Sub Contracto

Optional DBI Certification Service DBI 20 CERTIFICATION